

DUIKVAKER

Be where the diving world meets.

Duikvaker 2027 • 35th edition • Expo Houten • 5 - 7 February 2027

Once a year, the entire Benelux diving scene gathers under one roof - and so does the industry that drives it. Duikvaker is where travel, gear, training and adventure meet a crowd that is genuinely ready to buy, book and discover. For its 35th edition, we welcome you back to Expo Houten: centrally located in the Netherlands and a short drive from Amsterdam Schiphol.

AN AUDIENCE THAT SHOWS UP TO ACT

Duikvaker visitors don't browse, they plan. They come to book their next trip, replace their gear, and find their next certification. From seasoned tech divers to families taking their first breath underwater, the crowd is wonderfully diverse, but united by one thing: a real commitment to the underwater world.

For exhibitors, that means conversations with intent. Whether you're a travel agency, dive center, manufacturer or training provider, you're talking to people who are here precisely because they care about what you offer.

A SHOW WITH GLOBAL REACH

Duikvaker draws around 9,200 visitors and 200+ exhibitors from 27+ countries to Houten each edition, a snapshot of everything moving in the underwater world today. Across five theatres, 80+ presentations bring expert talks, live demos and hands-on workshops, while the Underwater Arts Festival celebrates the beauty of the ocean to packed houses. With 35+ years behind it, Duikvaker keeps its floor alive from the first hour to the last.
